Half a Million People

COMPELLED TO WALK IN CHICAGO ON ACCOUNT OF THE STRIKE.

THE WEST SIDE MEN GO OUT TO AID THE NORTH SIDE STRIKERS.

Non-descript Vehicles Do a Running Business, While the Cars Run By the Street Car Company Have But Few Passengers Except the Guard of Blue-Coated Police. Every Precaution Taken By the Authorities to Preserve Order and Prevent Violence.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—The West Side street car system, with its twenty or more branches, comprising nearly five hundred cars and employing nearly two thousand men, was tied up at 1 o'clock a. m.

This action was decided upon at a meeting of the West Side division employees, which lasted all night. At 9 o'clock Monday night the committee of the West Side men met at the mayor's office.

Mr. Yerkes was present with his lawyer. Mayor Roche was present, and the corporation counsel mayor was constituted a sort of arbitration and the matter discussed pro and con.

For the first time in controversy Mr. Yerkes agreed to establish the hourly system of pay. To horse car men who demanded twenty-one cents he was willing to pay twenty cents.

After a long discussion it was discovered that no possible settlement could be reached, and at 1 o'clock the parties separated. The committee hastened to the hall on the West Side.

The assembled men then sent to Mr. Yerkes an ultimatum, stating that all North Side men would resume work at twenty-one, twenty-three and twenty-six cents an hour for horse cars, trailers and grips respectively, all new men to be discharged.

The committee appointed to deliver this message to Mr. Yerkes returned at 3:36 with the reply that Mr. Yerkes at first refused to accede to this proposition, and then asked time for consideration until morning.

This reply was received with cries of derision, and a strike on the entire west division was declared to take place immediately.

By this extension of the strike to the west division two-thirds of the residence districts of the city, containing in the aggregate fully six hundred thousand souls, are practically cut off from all means of reaching the business section except by foot.

On the North Side the effort to accommodate the residents of the extreme northern sections was resumed at 7 o'clock, cars being started from the Larrabee and "limits" barns. As was the case Monday, they were sent out in a solid line preceded by a patrol wagon packed with officers, and with a detail of ten riding on each car. Very few of the public, however, availed themselves of the opportunity to get down town, and on the return trip there were but two passengers to twelve cars.

The non-descript vehicles, on the other hand, did a thriving business while the side-walks were packed with people, encouraged by the beautiful fall weather, to walk to their places of business. Here and there a cry of "scab" or "shame" was heard as the cars went by, but the hostile demonstrations were neither numerous nor generally participated in. The North Side strikers began to congregate in the vicinity of the barn soon after daylight, and when the news was received that the men on the West Side had gone out there was great cheering and other demonstrations of satisfaction.

Up to 9 o'clock no effort had been made to start any cars on the West Side, and Manager Parsons says unless there is a change in his programme he will let well enough alone until the North Side trouble has been adjusted.

BASE BALL ENTHUSIASTS.

A Large Number Will Accompany A. G. Spaulding to Australia.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—A. G. Spaulding has all but finished the multiplicity of details attending the successful inauguration of the Australian trip of the Chicago and all American ball clubs. The latest arrangements to date contemplate the following program: The players under contract are: Chicago—Anson, Burns, Pfeffer, Williamson, Ryan, Sullivan, Daly, Pettit, Baldwin and Tenor, all Americans; Ward, of New York; Capt. Hanlon, of Detroit; Wood, of Philadelphia; Kelly, of Boston; Carroll, of Pittsburgh; Tiernan, of New York; Healy, of Indianapolis; Donnelly, of Washington, and Timpon, of Newark. Carroll and Kelly are the two catchers. Healy and another man, yet to be engaged, are the pitchers. The men will report at Chicago, October 20, with the possible exception of Ward and Tiernan, who will be employed a few days in the New York and St. Louis world series. The two clubs will play a farewell game at Chicago, October 20. The first regiment cavalry band of Chicago will escort the players to the field and then to the station, where the boys will embark in a special palace car St. Paul.

The clubs will play at St. Paul October 21: Minneapolis, 22; Cedar Rapids, 23; Des Moines, 24; Omaha, 25; Hastings, Neb., 26; Denver, 27 and 28; Colorado Springs, 29; Salt Lake City, 31 and November 1; Sacramento, 3; San Francisco, 4, 11 and 17, and will sail from San Francisco the 17th. The players are to be escorted from the grounds direct to the boat. They possibly will play at Los Angeles November 14 and 15, and the rest of the time on the Pacific coast with local clubs. The steamer will stop long enough for one game at Honolulu and Auckland by special contract.

The opening game Australia will be played at Sydney about December 15. Then the club will travel to Melbourne, Adelaide and other prominent Australian cities. Spaulding is receiving constantly applications from base ball players of every sort and condition to be permitted to join the Australian tour. So many "pay passengers" have already applied for passage that it looks as though the steamer Alameda would be crowded to the guards when she leaves San Francisco.

TRAGEDY AT KNIGHTSTOWN, IND.

To Conceal a Theft N. B. Wade Kills His Ward and Mother and Suicides.

KNIGHTSTOWN, Ind., Oct. 10.—Early Monday morning fire was discovered at the residence of Mrs. Sarah Hoggins, in the southern part of town. The door was burst in, and there was found N. B. Wade, at the bed of his mother, Mrs. Hoggins, and nearly suffocated from smoke. He died soon after. His mother was found dead in bed. Mrs. Martha Cates, who had been living at Mrs. Hoggins', was not discovered until partly burned up. The fire had obtained great headway, and but little was saved.

The theory is that Wade murdered his mother and Mrs. Cates to hide a crime. Mrs. Cates was granted a pension, with $1,500 back pay, in the year 1874, and since then has been receiving $12 per month. Wade made her believe that he was her guardian, she having no relatives, and he has had control of her money, she only receiving $30 up to this time.

The pension agent was here Saturday look-up the matter, and gave Wade until Monday to arrange things. This so preyed upon him that he committed the murder and then suicided.

Wade and his wife occupied a residence near the center of the town, but Sunday night he went down to his mother's to see after her wants.

At the coroner's inquest over the body of Mrs. Cates they found that her throat had been cut and she had been stabbed in the heart. She also had a deep cut in her arm. Wade's stomach was examined, and a large quantity of Paris green found therein. An empty vial and sharp pointed shoe knife were found in his pockets. The remains of his mother showed that she had been suffocated.

Twenty-Six Horses and Two Men Burned.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—A long row of frame sheds used for stabling purposes, extending from Nos. 404 to 410 East Thirty-fourth street, owned by D. D. Whitehouse and rented by Michael McGuire, were burned shortly after 2 o'clock a. m., together with twenty-six horses, a quantity of harness and a number of vehicles. Thomas Carr and John Roach, two young men employed by Koominsky Brothers, expressmen and news-dealers, and who slept in the stable, were caught in the flames. Carr was burned to death. Roach succeeded in reaching the street, but is so badly burned that the doctors do not believe he can survive. The loss to property is estimated at from $15,000 to $20,000.

Mormon Church Dissolved.

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 10.—The supreme court of Utah to-day entered final judgment and decree in the case of the United States against the Mormon church, dissolving the church corporation, ordering the personal property to be forfeited to the government, and the real estate to be held by the receiver until the conclusion of proceedings brought by the government for its forfeiture, and declaring that the new Mormon corporation claiming to succeed to the property of the church, is only entitled to the temple and buildings actually used for worship. It is a complete victory for the government.

Packing House Burned.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—Schuneman's packing house, corner of Archer avenue and Salt street, was totally destroyed by fire at an early hour. The building was a three-story brick and was used as a packing house and butchery factory. The fire originated in the butchery factory, and is supposed to have been caused by the overturning of a kerosene lamp. The loss is estimated at $125,000, and is said to have been covered by insurance.

Died While Shouting.

XENIA, O., Oct. 10.—Lydia Washington, aged eighty-four years, was at the colored Wesleyan church, and participated in the services, speaking and shouting in an unusually happy way. While engaged in shouting she sank into her seat and died. Aunt Lydia was famous about Xenia for being the mother of twenty-two children.

The Epidemic Broken.

ONLY FIFTY NEW CASES AND FOUR DEATHS MONDAY.

THE SOUTH MAY BE YEARS RECOVERING FROM THE BLOW

Which She Has Sustained By the Yellow Scourge—A Man, With His Wife and Two Children, Die From Disease, Starvation and Exposure on Account of the Shotgun Quarantine.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 10.—There were fifty new cases of fever Monday and four deaths.

The people are much cast down by the recent loss of prominent citizens. Now that the epidemic is broken, the people begin to look to the future, many fear that the city and state will be years in recovering from the severe blow that has been sustained. It is feared that the coming winter season will be a dull one.

The regular physicians are taking steps to prosecute the promoters of the electric system of medical treatment. The claim that the treatment has left those to whom it was applied so weak that when regular physicians were called they were unable to help the patients.

The Masonic relief committee here has issued a card to the fraternity throughout the United States, thanking them for assistance furnished and stating that no more funds are necessary.

An Awful Story From Alabama.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The World's special from Birmingham, Ala., says: The shotgun quarantine has resulted in the death of four people in Marshall county. When the yellow fever broke out at Decatur among the refugees who left were Charles Parker his wife and two small children. Parker was a carpenter, and had little money. He had relatives near Oak Mountain, and decided to go there. When within fifteen miles of the house he was confronted by the shotgun quarantine guards. He could not obtain shelter. After being driven away from a number of houses Parker and his family camped at a spring at the foot of the mountain. That was the last time they were seen alive, as the people in the neighborhood would not go near the camp.

Sunday a physician heard of the circumstance and determined to ascertain the fate of the family. On reaching the spot he was horrified to find the dead and decomposing bodies of Parker and his family. Parker and his wife had evidently died of yellow fever, while the two children, about two and four years old, it is supposed, died of starvation and exposure.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.

An Editor and Two Other Men Shot By Two Southern Desperadoes.

ANNISTON, Ala., Oct. 10.—An attempt was made Monday to assassinate W. H. Edmonds, editor of the Hot Blast, who has been aggressively advocating a rigid enforcement of the prohibition laws.

A week ago four ex-policemen, who had been discharged for inefficiency, waylaid Editor Edmonds, and one of them jumped on him and beat him severely. Mr. Edmonds making such resistance as he could. An outrageously false account of the affair was sent to the Montgomery Dispatch, reflecting seriously upon Mr. Edmonds, who replied through the Dispatch, pronouncing the author a liar, and charging him with cowardice in sending forth such a falsehood unsigned. It was developed that the correspondent of the Dispatch was J. S. Lawrence, a justice of the peace.

Monday afternoon, Lawrence, accompanied by Will Lacey, entered the Hot Blast office. Lawrence and Lacey called Edmonds outside and demanded a retraction. This was refused. Lacey then opened fire on the editor with a revolver. He was shot in the left arm. The weapon missed fire the second time, which probably saved Edmonds' life. The would-be assassin then fired at two men in the newspaper office. Coppell, the mailing clerk, was shot through the neck, and the other, A. Tripney, who was merely in the office on business, received two wounds in the head, both serious.

The two desperadoes were subsequently captured. Indignation ran high, and there was strong talk among the citizens of lynching them.

Free Industrial School.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10.—Isaiah V. Williamson, a wealthy merchant and well known philanthropist, has decided to endow a great industrial school in this city where boys can be educated and taught some trade free of expense. Mr. Williamson says that the plans have not yet been completed. It is his intention to place the matter in the hands of trustees. They will be men who understand such matters and will work out the plans themselves. The amount to be devoted to the work is not yet known but will, it is said, be several million dollars.

Miss Willard Criticized.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 10.—A meeting of the orthodox ministers of Minneapolis was held Monday, at which crimes against mothers and infants were discussed. The Rev. Mr. G. Jensen said that a mother of a family is worthy of more praise than Miss Frances Willard, the leader of the Women's Christian Temperance union. Dr. Burrell said that Miss Willard had done the cause of temperance irretrievable injury by assuming a man's place. A woman, he said, should not go into the pulpit, and when she does so she weakens her cause.

Adventures of a Hoosier Boy.

WABASH, Ind., Oct. 10.—Henry Strouem, son of A. Strouem, of New Paris, who was believed to be a prisoner in the Philippine Islands, has just been heard from in a letter from the consul at Manila, stating that Strouem, regarding whose whereabouts nothing had been heard by his parents since last April, arrived safely at Manila August 11, having been on the Island of Gamu in captivity for 180 days. He left Manila August 13 for Hong Kong, China, from which place he has written his parents. The young man had a thrilling experience while in captivity among the cannibals.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY.
Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY EVE., OCT. 10, 1888.

SENATOR SHERMAN is talking a good deal just now of the Canadian annexation question. He hasn't a word to say for General Harrison. The Senator is a power in the Buckeye State, and his silence will do the Democrats no harm.

The Pittsburg Gazette, which is not only a high tariff paper, but is published at the home of the protected industries, boasts that the Pittsburg Steel Works have established a number of branch houses in Europe, India and Australia. There is your Republican testimony as to what an American industry can do abroad, and there are many others in the country that are thus competing successfully with "pauper labor." Where then is the necessity for compelling our own people to longer pay burdensome war taxes in name of "protection" to industries that are competing with the world?

Ex-Secretary McCulloch Comes Over.

When such veterans as Hon. Hugh McCulloch, Secretary of the Treasury under Lincoln, Johnson and Arthur, deserts the Republicans, it is time for all fair-minded members of that party to pause and give the question serious thought before casting their votes at the approaching election.

Mr. McCulloch is one of the best posted men in the country on the issue involved in the present campaign. He believes there should be a revision and reform of the tariff. He thinks the people have been paying war taxes long enough, and he will vote for Cleveland and Thurman if able to get to the polls on election day.

Grant, Garfield and Arthur entertained similar views on the tariff to those of Mr. McCulloch, and were they living today they would repudiate their party's platform which declares in favor of free whisky in preference to giving the masses cheaper necessities of life.

Let fair-minded Republicans pause and think. Their party has deserted them, and they should rebuke such monopolists as Carnegie, who have got control of it.

How It Happened and All About It.

It was Tuesday, September 11, 1888, always Tuesday, the 220th Grand Monthly drawing of The Louisiana State Lottery occurred under the sole management, as usual, of Gen'l G. T. TOBACCO MARKET.

Furnished by Glover & Durrett, proprietors Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 1,777 bbls. with receipts for the same period of 439 bbls. Sales on our market since January 1st, amount to 66,466 bbls.

The offerings of burley this week have been rather larger than usual. Values have been fairly sustained under the increased offerings, but there has been no quotable advance. The crop has been to some extent damaged by the recent frosts, but not to a degree to affect the market. The greatest damage reported is in the Mason County district; in the section west of the Kentucky river the per cent. of the crop in the field at the time of frost was small.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco:

Particulars of the Murder of Mrs.
Cales at Knightstown, Indiana.

Brief mention was made yesterday of the murder of Mrs. Martha Cales, a sister of Mr. George Crawford, of this city, at her home at Knightstown, Ind. It was a horrible tragedy according to the particulars as detailed in a special to the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Early Monday morning fire was discovered at the residence of Mrs. Sarah Hoggins, in the southern part of Knights-town. The door was burst in, and there was found N. B. Wade, at the bed of his mother, Mrs. Hoggins, and nearly suffocated from smoke. He died soon after.
His mother was found dead in bed.
Mrs. Martha Cales, who had been living at Mrs. Hoggins', was not discovered until partly burned up. The fire had obtained great headway, and but little was saved.

The theory according to the special is that Wade murdered his mother and Mrs. Cales to hide a crime. Mrs. Cales was granted a pension, with $1,500 back pay, in the year 1874, and since then has been receiving $12 per month. Wade made her believe that he was her guardian, and he has had control of her money, she only receiving $30 up to this time.

A pension agent was present Saturday
looking up the matter, and gave Wade until Monday to arrange things. This so prayed upon him that he committed the murder and then suicided.

At the Coroner's inquest Monday afternoon over the body of Mrs. Cales they found that her throat had been cut and she had been stabbed in the heart. She also had a deep cut in her arm. Wade's stomach was examined and a large quantity of Paris green found therein. An empty vial and sharp-pointed shoe-knife were found in his pockets. The remains of his mother showed that she had been suffocated.

"OLD SETTLERS' REUNION."

An Interesting Event Near Richland Church, Lewis County, Last Saturday.

The "old settlers' reunion" last Saturday at the home of Mr. A. D. Tolle near Richland Church, Lewis County, was attended by a large crowd. It was more correctly a reunion of the old settlers' descendants, for the pioneers have passed to that rest
where there is no separation.

Stephen and Benjamin Lee, it is claimed, were the earliest pioneers of that section. Then came Mathias Davis, Rev.
J. Singleton, Aaron and John Owens, Augustin Coon, John Trussell, David
Clary, George Means, David and Peter
Arnold, Peter Duzan, John Tolle, Lewis
DeBell, Daniel Carr, Sovereign Pollitt,
Colonel Wm. Farrow, N. D. Thomas, John Spurrier, Cornelius Coryell and Alexander Stubblefield. These were among the first to lay the axe to the forests of that neighborhood, in the early days of Kentucky, and hew out a habitation for themselves in the wilderness, while yet the deer and the buffalo and the Indian frequented the land. Led by a venturesome spirit they had left the family abode east of the Alleghenies and sought their fortunes in the forests.
To-day their descendants are scattered throughout the land, many of them being found in the counties of Mason, Fleming and Lewis. Among those residing in the vicinity of Richland Church are Augustin Owens, M. Trussell and sisters, A. D. Tolle, Miss M. L. Tolle, John Lee, A. D. Owens, J. K. Farrow, J.
D. Farrow, George Farrow, Hamilton
Pollitt, M. D. Farrow and brothers, Jas.
Cooper, Samuel Cooper, Isaac Cooper and Peter Arnold, Jr.

The reunion Saturday was suggested by Wm. Tolle, who was on a visit to his brother, A. D. Tolle, after an absence in the West of forty years. He is now eighty-seven years old, and he realized that it would be the last opportunity he would have of meeting those friends and relatives who had served with him in the battles of an early settler's life. His home at present is in Iowa.

The reunion Saturday was held at the old Tolle residence, claimed to be the oldest home in the county, having been built while Kentucky was yet a part of Virginia. The occasion was one of enjoyment to old and young. The "festal board" was spread with inviting refreshments, which were served in lavish manner to all. At the conclusion of the banquet the names and ages of those present were recorded, after which the crowd were entertained with vocal and instrumental music. An appropriate feature of the musical programme was the vocal selection "Far Away" sung by Hall Pollitt with guitar accompaniment by Forest Lee. The silver-locked old patriarch, Wm. Tolle, then addressed the crowd briefly. Several speakers had been invited, but were prevented from attending. A letter was read from Judge Jo. M. Alexander, of Sharpsburg, expressing his regret at not being able to be present and meet the friends of his father and mother.

It was resolved to hold annual reunions, and Ruggles' camp grounds were chosen as the place of the meeting next year.

MORGAN H. JOHNSTON.

A Native of Mason County Dies
Suddenly in New York City.

Morgan H. Johnston died very suddenly in New York last Sunday morning.
The Washington City correspondent of the Louisville Times says: "He was better known in Washington perhaps as "Hop" Johnston. He was formerly a clerk at the Capitol and was some time connected with the Washington Bureau of the New York Herald. For six years past he has been in New York employed on the Herald and had charge of the City Hall departments. He called on a friend Saturday morning to breakfast with him and was suddenly seized with acute gastro enteritis. Convulsions followed and he died at 5 o'clock Sunday morning.

"Mr. Johnston was an able journalist and well known in Tennessee, having served on the Memphis and Nashville papers. He was a native of Mason County, Ky., and belonged to the large and well-known family of that name.
Will Johnston (Masie Decca), now singing abroad, is his first cousin."

Future of Germany.

THE NATIONS OF EUROPE ASKING
WHAT IT WILL BE

IF THE YOUNG EMPEROR CONTINUES
HIS PRESENT COURSE.

German Socialism Making Great Progress Under His Reign—He is Surrounded By a Strong Guard—The Prince of Wales on a Bear Hunt in Roumania—Who Laura Schirmer Was—Foreign Notes.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—The nations of Europe are asking, with different hopes and expectations as to answer, where will the young emperor lead Germany. He has gained no friends since his ascension to the throne, and his allies find themselves committed in advance to sustain the policy of a restless monarch who disdains all advice and whose greatest gratification is to know that he keeps the continent in a state of exasperating anxiety as to what freak will next take possession of his brain.

It is certain that German socialism has made more progress in his short reign than during the previous decade. The superior committee there has demanded and obtained freedom to act independently of the American councils, whom they accuse of lukewarmness in the cause, as a result of the easier conditions of their life. There is no doubt in the minds of those well informed that the Socialistic gain in the army has been considerable of late, for the lot of the German soldier has been more unendurable than ever for the past few months. Between reviews, midnight alarms, experiments in novel maneuvers, and a rigidity of discipline before unknown, even in the German army, it is natural that the rank and file, superior as it is in education to the material of other European armies, should feel a discontent that grows stronger through repression.

To distract the attention of his people and give employment to the army is the task of the emperor by day and his dream by night. Persuaded that the time has not yet arrived for a continental war the dispatch of troops to the east African possessions is a proof that colonial development is to be continued on a larger scale than has been heretofore believed, and that that quarter of the world is decidedly a capital place to which to draft disaffected regiments or officers. There is a strong feeling of apprehension in England at the course of Germany in occupying territory bordering upon her own possessions on the coast of the dark continent and so near Australia as New Guinea.

Where the boundaries are irregularly defined, or rather not defined at all, there must ever be a danger of collision between the representatives of the two nations. The English have shown themselves a colonizing people, but it is yet to be seen if the Germans possess the necessary qualities for success in that capacity. Any disputes arising between settlers belonging to such overbearing races would embitter the relations, not very cordial at present, between Germany and England and justify the longing of the emperor for a navy able to cope with that of any other country, and assist in the planting of German settlements to the advantage of trade and the glorification of the kaiser.

During the visit now being paid by William to Emperor Francis the Viennese have observed with wonder the great military precautions which have been taken to insure the safety of the royal visitor. The reasons were revealed by good authority Monday, and the emperors are thus carefully guarded because of the recent revelations abroad. Particulars can not be disclosed, but circumstances just now are such as to render it less advisable than it used to be for foreign potentates to run unnecessary risk.

Royalty On a Bear Hunt.

VIENNA, Oct. 10.—The prince of Wales and the Crown Prince Rudolph reached Garmisch Monday, and at once started on their bear hunting expedition.

The keepers reported that there were eight bears in the forest to be shot over. A telegram from there says that the bear hunting began at noon, when the prince and invited guests, consisting for the most part of members of the Hungarian aristocracy started from Garmisch in a four-in-hand for Adarian. Their coaches were exchanged for small mountain horses, and after an hour's ride the party reached the spot which had been selected for the day's sport. To the prince of Wales was assigned the position which usually proves a good one, and every one else having taken up his place, the beaters, who are for the most part huge Roumanian highlanders dressed in their picturesque native costume, and bristling with arms of all kinds, set to work.

Shortly after the forest was alive with startled game, and foxes, deer and wild boar came rushing through the undergrowth. These were allowed to pass, lest in firing at them the bears should be scared away. Not a single bear appeared, however, and after waiting for a considerable time the venue was changed for one higher up the mountain, but again without results, so far as the game sought after was concerned.

Mysterious Fate of Laura Schirmer.

MILAN, Oct. 10.—There has been no denial of the revelation made here regarding the fate of Laura Schirmer. Last winter the American colony here heard that Laura had become an inmate of the sultan's harem. Some said she had been abducted thither, but others, who know her tastes and tendencies, believe that she had gone willingly into this captivity. And now comes this latest story, and all Milan holds up its hands in horror.

It was nine years ago that she made her debut in Boston, where her widowed mother and one sister still reside, and made a great success in "The Crown Diamonds." Before her twentieth year Laura had made so marked a success on the concert stage that her friends all urged her to study for the operatic stage, and after a year's study she sang at the Globe theater with Charles R. Adams in "La Juive" and "The Crown Diamonds." Later on she traveled through the United States under Strakosh, singing in "Sommambula," "Lucia di Lammermoor" and other well known operas.

She married Byron, the baritone of the company, in Italy, who became a drunken wretch and abused her sadly. They were engaged to sing in Constantinople in 1884, but Byron utterly failed and was sent back to Italy. She became intimate with the prime minister, and the next heard of her she was living in royal luxury in the sultan's harem. For a long time afterward she was lost to the world, but last summer the news was received that she committed suicide. This was never generally believed by those who knew her, and it is possible that she was put to death as the Italian journal states.

Canadians Will Bide Their Time.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—Mr. W. H. Smith, in a speech at Gloucester, said the Canadians were willing to bide their time, because they knew that after the presidential election in the United States they would obtain a just and fair arrangement of the fisheries trouble. The peoples of England, America and Canada were too good friends to quarrel over a question of this kind. Mr. Smith denied the truth of the report that the British government intended to hand Bechuanaland over to the government of Cape Colony.

The Mystery Deepens.

Madened by Joy.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 10.—Louis Bonsall, a young farmer of Goshen, this county, has been adjudged insane by Judge Nelson and ordered committed to the Cleveland asylum. Her husband announced from the pulpit the fact of her desertion of him.

Will Vote Accordingly.

GALESBURG, Ill., Oct. 10.—Members of the executive committee of the political association of railway employes held a conference here yesterday with Gen. Palmer, and subsequently urged the strikers to vote for their own interests regardless of former party ties. They represented that they were going soon to see Joe Fifer and ascertain what he would do. The vote of the association, which they put at 15,000 will, it is said, be swung to whichever party will benefit them most.

Fatal Quarrel Over Cards.

The murderer is still at large.
